

Personal Loss-Awareness History

Types of Losses	Childhood						Adolescence						Adulthood
Tangible Losses
Baby
Body Part
Child
Divorce
Friend
Friendship
Grandparent
Health
House
Job
Loss Due to Dementia
Loss of Child's Health
Parent
Pet
Possession
Relative
Relocation
Sibling
Spouse
Intangible Losses
Ability
Choice
Dreams
Faith or Hope
Freedom
Independence
Individuality
Privacy
Reputation
Self-Esteem
Sense of Security
Sense of Self
Trust																				